TOM KERRIDGE'S ULTIMATE TURKEY GUIDE

Serve your best-ever Christmas dinner with Tom's top tips for picking a first-class turkey

THE IRISH TURKEY CROWN

"These don't need to be cooked for as long as a whole turkey and they're compact, which is great if you're pushed for oven space. Crowns are ideal if everyone you're feeding prefers that lighter-tasting white breast meat, and you can get them glazed or stuffed for incredible flavour. They're easier to carve than a whole turkey, so a real winner if you're after faff-free serving."

A. Free-range stuffed Irish turkey crown From €45.90

Serves 10-14 | 2.7-3.6kg

29322152 €68.85-€91.80

TOM'S CHEF SECRETS

"A turkey crown wrapped in streaky bacon is like the ultimate pig in blanket, only the sausage is the turkey breast! The moisture and the fat content from the bacon will seep into the meat, keeping it nice and juicy and packed with flavour. It will also help to baste and cook it."

All images are serving suggestions only. Please check website or packaging for allergens and further information. Products containing alcohol can only be served to people aged 18 or over. Never leave a lit candle unattended.

THE WHOLE IRISH TURKEY

"Your traditional Christmas Day centrepiece, a whole bird gives your guests a choice of juicy turkey breast meat, crispy legs or fall-off-the-bone wing meat. Great if you want to dress it with all the trimmings and carve it at the table for a 'wow' start to your Christmas dinner. You should have plenty of meat for St Stephen's Day leftovers, too – I look forward to a Christmas dinner sarnie!"
